Kurt von Holzhausen Joins Broadhaven As Partner

Bolsters Firm's Financial Technology and Asset Management Advisory Practices

New York, NY, May 16, 2017 – Broadhaven Capital Partners (“Broadhaven”), a leading independent investment bank serving the financial services sector, announced today that Kurt von Holzhausen has joined the firm as a Partner.

Mr. von Holzhausen has been a prominent financial services investment banker for the past twenty years, including the last twelve years as a Managing Director with the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs, where he served as the Global Co-Head of the Financial Technology and Asset Management coverage teams.

“Broadhaven continues to grow its businesses by investing in talent of the highest quality, and we are delighted to have someone with Kurt’s depth and breadth of experience and relationships join our team,” said Broadhaven Co-Founder Jerry von Dohlen.

Over his career, Mr. von Holzhausen has advised on more than $50 billion in completed M&A transactions. Prior to his career at Goldman, he spent eight years with Morgan Stanley in its Financial Institutions Group.

“Broadhaven has established itself as a world-class financial advisory firm and I am honored to be part of the team,” said Mr. von Holzhausen. “I look forward to growing our presence in the financial services sector by providing our clients with unique insights and valuable advice.”
