October 17, 2018 04:23 PM Eastern Daylight Time

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Boston Private Financial Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: BPFH) (the "Company" or "Boston Private") announced today that it has agreed to sell its entire ownership interest in Bingham, Osborn & Scarborough, LLC ("BOS") in a transaction that will result in BOS becoming majority owned by members of its management team. As part of the transaction, Kudu Investment Management, LLC ("Kudu"), a New York-based provider of passive, long-term capital to asset and wealth management firms, will acquire a minority interest in BOS alongside management.

"This transaction generates capital flexibility for us to redeploy into our Boston Private franchise, while enabling return of capital to shareholders. We are excited about opportunities to invest more directly in expansion of our Boston Private Wealth Management, Trust, and Private Banking businesses," said Clayton G. Deutsch, CEO of Boston Private.

Boston Private will receive approximately $21 million of cash at closing and an eight year revenue share. Boston Private currently estimates that the financial impact of the transaction will result in a pre-tax gain of approximately $18 million and a related tax expense of approximately $3 million to $4 million. The net financial impact will increase Tier 1 Common Equity by approximately $33 million. The financial impact will be recorded at the time of closing, which is expected to occur in the fourth quarter of 2018.

BOS had approximately $4.7 billion of assets under management as of September 30, 2018 and accounted for approximately $17.4 million of revenue in Boston Private's Wealth Advisory segment, $11.9 million of operating expense, and $2.1 million of net income attributable to noncontrolling interests in Boston Private's financial results during the first nine months of 2018.

This transaction has been approved by the Company's board of directors and is subject to obtaining client consents, and satisfaction of other customary closing conditions.

Broadhaven Capital Partners, LLC served as financial advisor and Goodwin Procter LLP served as legal counsel to Boston Private in this transaction.
